Plaintiff,
vs.	STIPULATION TO PERMIT TRAVEL TO CALIFORNIA
MAURICE WILLIAMSON, Defendant.

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between Joshua Brister, Assistant

United States Attorney, and Jacqueline Tirinnanzi, counsel for Defendant Maurice Williamson, that the defendant be permitted to travel to Riverside and Corona California from June 3-6.

The stipulation is entered for the following reasons:

1.   On December 21, 2021, this Court granted Mr. Williamson's second motion to modify conditions of release, resulting in the removal of conditions requiring home detention and GPS monitoring; all other conditions remained in place. ECF

No. 49.

2.   Currently, Mr. Williamson's pretrial release conditions permit him to travel freely within Clark County, Nevada. ECF. No. 12 at p. 3.

3.   On the weekend of June 3-6, 2022, Mr. Williamson would like to travel to Riverside and Corona California, for the purposes of visiting and staying with his elderly mother, Carolyn Williamson (Riverside), and to attend his grandson's first birthday on June 4, 2022, in nearby Corona, California.

4. Mr. Williamson has followed all directives of pretrial release and has been in regular contact with the undersigned.

5. Mr. Williamson is willing to provide all travel details to Pretrial Services.

6. U.S. Pretrial Services Officer Samira Barlow has indicated that she has no objection to the travel request.

7. The government defers to the position of pretrial services on the issue, and therefore does not oppose the travel.
